Sophie's Woodland Adventure

Once upon a time in a town called Troon
Sophie went walking by the light of the moon
She went to the woods so deep and wild
And there she met the Gruffalo's Child
The Gruffalo's Child looked and stared
And said to Sophie 'Aren't you scared?'
Here in the woods so far from your house
Aren't you afraid of the big bad mouse?

Sophie giggled and said 'No not me.

The big bad mouse is here you see.

We have come along to have fun and play.'

Pippa shouted, 'Sophie's 5 so it's a really special day!'

'Please, why don't you join us?' said Sophie to the Gruffalo's child.

'Oh thank you, I would like that,' she said with a timid smile.

'What will we do, what will we play?' said Sophie to all her friends?

Eva shouted excitedly, 'I'd like to build a den.'

Grace said, 'Or make a stick man or build a fairy house.'

A tiny voice said, 'excuse me,' and they all turned to the mouse.

'I'm not big and I'm not bad, I'm really very good

And I would like to help you find the treasure of Fullarton Wood.'

'What a great idea!' said the children all at once,

'A treasurehunt in the woods that will be such fun.'

But where do we look, what way do we go?

Maybe we could ask your dad he'll know...
